Independent Study Policy
Reviewed 5/6/2015

Students may register for one to four credits of independent study during any semester of the academic year. Students may earn a maximum of nine elective credits through this method. Independent study credits are accepted toward graduation.

Registration must be preceded by discussion with the supervising instructor. The nature of the project, the number of credits to be awarded, and the independent study plan are subject to the approval of the Academic Administrator or designee prior to the start of the semester during which the credits will be earned.
