Learning outcomes, including any relevant competencies listed in the Minnesota Transfer Curriculum:

6. The Humanities and Fine Arts
Students will be able to

- Demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
- Respond critically to works in the arts and humanities.
- Engage in the creative process or interpretive performance.
- Articulate an informed personal reaction to works in the arts and humanities.

Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the fundamentals of music theory through discussion and performance.

Student assessment methods:
Students will harmonize a simple melody using I, IV, V chords and inversions; transpose melody to another major or minor key; identify the key signature, melodic phrases, cadences, formal structure and harmonic structure of a piece. Students will complete written assignments at the end of each chapter in the book. The final exam will consist of sight-singing, sight-playing a melody on the keyboard, and written questions on what was discussed in the text.

Use of instructional technology (includes software, interactive video and other instructional technologies):
Students will use the internet to compile information on topics discussed in class for a notebook assignment. Videos on composition, improvisation and basic techniques of jazz and blues for the piano keyboard will be used.

Outline of the major course content:
This course is a continuation of MUSC 1566 (Or previous course MUSC 110). Course work includes harmonization and transposition of melodies using I, IV, V chord progressions; compound meters; syncopation; melodic repetition and sequence; chord symbols and their application in Jazz, Blues, and Popular Music; introduction to musical forms; and further harmonization using I, ii, ii\sup{7}, IV, v and V\sup{7} chords. Students will further their level of piano proficiency through the study of harmonizing and transposing melodies at the piano keyboard.
